Personal Liability Insurance

When saying sorry may not be enough.....

Accidents happen. If they happen as a result of something which you or your family may have done you may be held legally liable to pay compensation to others who are injured or whose property is damaged as a result.

Compulsory Motor Insurance protects you whilst you drive and Workmen's Compensation Insurance indemnifies you if there is an accident to your employees, but if an accident happens

- in your home
- whilst you and your family are out and about
- caused by your pets
- when your children are cycling or at play
- when you take part in sports

Personal Liability Insurance provides you with an indemnity against your legal liability to pay	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• compensation• legal costs awarded against you arising out of	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• your own legal defence costs if agreed by the Company• accidental bodily injury• accidental damage to property caused to others by	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• you• your family who live with you• your domestic servants.

Court awards for injury and damage are frequently substantial. Can you afford not to be protected when Personal Liability Insurance can provide you with the security of a protection of up to
