

MCIS gets new CFO

Schiltknecht

JUERG Schiltknecht has been seconded to MCIS Zurich Insurance Berhad as the chief financial officer recently.

Schiltknecht began his career with Zurich Financial Services in Switzerland as a management trainee and subsequently moved to the Corporate Centre, where he worked in the corporate development division.

Subsequently, he moved to Britain, where he was responsible for investment recommendations into e-start-up companies.

After a two-year consultancy stint on corporate advisory with PricewaterhouseCoopers, he rejoined Zurich Financial Services as executive support to the group finance director.

Schiltknecht holds a PhD from the University of Basel, Switzerland and a MBA from Manchester Business School, Britain.
