

Snapshots of notable events in the week Sept 25 - Oct 1

Pictures by Suhaimi Yusuf & Lee Lay Kin

MAXIS BROADBAND. Minister of Energy, Water and Communications Datuk Seri Dr Lim Keng Yaik (centre), Maxis Communications Bhd CEO Datuk Jamaludin Ibrahim (left) and Maxis 3G & Wireless and Broadband head Dr Nikolai Dobberstein at the official launch of Maxis Broadband in Kuala Lumpur on Sept 26

MID-TEEN GROWTH. Citibank Bhd's credit card portfolio may grow 15% next year in tandem with the industry average despite a slowdown in the credit card market, said its CEO Piyush Gupta (2nd from right) at the launch of "Citibank Use Credit Wisely on BlueHyppo" on Sept 27. Also in the picture are Credit Counselling and Debt Management Agency CEO Mohamed Akwal Sultan (right) and Telekom Malaysia Bhd's Malaysia Business CEO Zamzamzairani Mohd Isa

IT'S A DEAL. (From left) Lydia Ng Lee Tiang of Malayan Banking Bhd's business banking, AmMerchant Bank Bhd MD T C Kok, KNM Group Bhd MD Lee Swee Eng, Aseambankers Malaysia Bhd CEO Surachet Chaipatamanont and Equity Trust (M'sia) Sdn Bhd ED Sue Yong after the signing of RM300 million Islamic commercial papers/medium-term notes by KNM in Selangor on Sept 25

VALUE-ADDED PRODUCT. Women, Family and Community Development Minister Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil (centre) launching MCIS Zurich Insurance Bhd's MZ LadyCare, a first-of-its-kind policy, in Kuala Lumpur on Sept 28. She is flanked by MCIS Zurich chairman Datuk P Balaram (right) and CEO Adnan Zain

EYE ON EXPANSION. Finnair Plc is keen on partnering with MAS to expand the Finnish airline's presence in the Asean region, said Finnair area vice president of Europe, Asia and the Americas, Hannu Sundberg (right). He is seen here exchanging documents with Worldwide Aviation Industry Sdn Bhd MD Chris T I Tan in Kuala Lumpur on Sept 28 after Finnair appointed Worldwide Aviation as its general sales agent in Malaysia